Amend the Laws for the Regulation of Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland. A.D. 1872.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament held in the sixth and seventh years of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws for the Regulation of Charitable Loan Societies in Ireland," (in this Act referred to as "the principal Act,") a board, denominated "The Loan Fund Board," was established for the superintendence of all loan societies and for other purposes in the said Act mentioned:

And whereas by section forty-six of the principal Act it was, amongst others, enacted that the said Loan Fund Board should cause a sufficient number of forms of notes to be printed in the manner therein directed, and should, subject to the conditions therein stated, and upon payment for every form of such note of one penny, transmit or deliver such number of the said forms as they should be required to each loan society established under the principal Act:

And whereas the revenues of the said Loan Fund Board have been insufficient for the purposes of the principal Act, and it is expedient, with a view to increase such revenues, to amend the principal Act by providing that the sum payable upon every such note shall be increased in manner by this Act provided:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited as "The Loan Societies (Ireland) Act, 1843, Amendment Act, 1872."

2. The sum to be paid by each loan society established under the principal Act for every form of a note supplied to them by the Loan Fund Board in pursuance of section forty-six of the principal Act, shall, after the passing of this Act, be twopence instead of one penny, as prescribed by the said section.
